ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2023

18–19 APRIL 2023

113 Chancery Lane
London
WC2A 1PL

sscrannualconference2023.eventbrite.co.uk

www.sscr.nihr.ac.uk
www.nihr.ac.uk

Twitter:
@NIHRSSCR
#SSCR2023

DAY 1

From 9.30 Reading Room	Registration
10.30 Common Room	Welcome Professor Martin Knapp, NIHR SSCR Director
10.45 Common Room	Opening plenary Professor Vic Rayner, National Care Forum
11.25 Reading Room	Break

11.50 Parallel sessions

Intimacy and inclusivity

Strand

Chair:
TBC

Supporting autistic adults' intimate lives	Monique Huysamen, Manchester Metropolitan University
Personal assistance for intimate citizenship: improving sexuality-related support for disabled young adults	Edmund Coleman-Fountain, Northumbria University
Older LGBTQ+ adults experiences of inclusivity within social care	Liz Wands-Murray, University of York

Mental health

Old Bookshop

Chair:
Paul Clarkson

Interpreter-mediated mental health act assessments	Alys Young, Rebecca Tipton and Natalia Rodriguez, University of Manchester
Supporting social inclusion for people with serious mental illness living in supported housing	Sharon Eager and Bryn Lloyd-Evans, University College London
The role and experiences of frontline care and support workers in intermediary mental health: barriers and facilitators to integrated care	Mohammed Hussain, University of Birmingham

Carers

Common Room

Chair:
Derek King

Determining and managing the specific mental health needs of social care staff and family carers of older adults	Clarissa Giebel, University of Liverpool
Section 17 leave: supporting unpaid carers	Laura Tucker, University of York
Understanding the division of household labour from the young adult carer's perspective: a qualitative study	Camille Bou, London School of Economics and Political Science

13.05
Reading Room   Lunch

DAY 1

13.50 Reading Room	## Poster viewing

14.05 | Parallel sessions

Dementia

Common Room

Chair:
Kritika Samsi

Improving social care practice in integrating mouth and teeth care in personal care for people living with dementia	Dia Soilemezi, University of Portsmouth
Developing the role of Dementia Champions in the homecare sector	Monica Leverton and Tiffeny James, King's College London
Information and support needs after a diagnosis of dementia: co-designing a dementia guide with people living with dementia and caregivers	Jane Wilcock and Claudio Di Lorito, University College London

Protection

Old Bookshop

Chair:
Michelle
McCarthy

Safer online lives: use of the internet and social media by people with intellectual disabilities	Paraskevi Triantafyllopoulou, University of Kent
A social care-based mixed method evaluation of COVID-19: understanding workforce response and effects	Janine Owens and Susan Davies, University of Manchester
Strengthening adult safeguarding responses to homelessness and self-neglect	Jess Harris, King's College London

Assets and resources

Strand

Chair:
Juliette Malley

Combining asset-based innovations to deliver whole system change within adult services	Jerry Tew, University of Birmingham
What are the costs and consequences of implementing NICE adult social care guidelines from a local systems perspective?	Annette Bauer, London School of Economics and Political Science
The place of the family in reablement: an asset or a challenge to overcome?	Bryony Beresford and Chunhua Chen, University of York

15.20 Reading Room	## Break and poster viewing

15.50	Parallel sessions
Home and housing Old Bookshop Chair: Phillip Whitehead	Collaborative housing and innovative social care practice	Karen West and Jim Hudson, University of Bristol
	Decluttering the homes of people with hoarding behaviours: local authority commissioning, professional practices, and user experiences	Jennifer Owen, King's College London
	Housing conditions and characteristics and their associations with social care needs and receipt of support	Nicola Brimblecombe, London School of Economics and Political Science
Learning disabilities Common Room Chair: Mary Baginsky	Supporting people with learning disabilities at the edges of social care in social housing and the private rented sector	Eppie Leishman, David Abbott and Deborah Quilgars, University of Bristol
	Care relationships between support staff and adults with a learning disability in social care residential settings in England	Georgios Mamolis, University of Kent
	Bridging the translation gap between learning disability policy and practice in search of flourishing lives	Sara Ryan, Manchester Metropolitan University
Identifying and resourcing care needs Strand Chair: Yvonne Birks	"When the money runs out": capital depletion and transition out of self-funded care	Phillip Kinghorn, University of Birmingham
	Self-funders' preferences for support in navigating community social care	Rowan Jasper, University of York
	The significance of home-delivered meals among clients of the Meals on Wheels service	Angeliki Papadaki, University of Bristol
17.05	Close
17.30	Reception and buffet dinner Senior Common Room, 5th Floor, Old Building, London School of Economics and Political Science

DAY 2

From 8.30
Reading Room

Registration

9.00
Common Room

Welcome to Day 2
Professor Catherine Robinson, NIHR SSCR Deputy Director

9.05
Common Room

Plenary: Keynote
Michelle Dyson and Paul Allen, Department of Health and Social Care

---

9.45
Common Room

In conversation...
Dame Denise Platt and Jennifer Bostock

10.25
Reading Room

Break

10.45

Parallel sessions

Dementia

Common Room

Chair:
Martin Knapp

Supporting people living with dementia in extra care housing	Rebecca Oatley , Cardiff University
Strengthening dementia care and support in England	Adelina Comas-Herrera, London School of Economics and Political Science
Tailoring carers' assessments in NHS and adult social care to the needs of carers of people living with dementia	Paul Clarkson, University of Manchester

---

Assets and resources

Strand

Chair:
Jose-Luis
Fernandez

Understanding and enhancing the role of councillors in shaping adult social care practice	Catherine Needham and Dave McKenna, University of Birmingham
3 conversations: getting social care conversations right to improve care and support	Madeleine Stevens, London School of Economics and Political Science
The contribution of social enterprise to the social care sector	Kelly Hall, University of Birmingham

---

Older people

Old Bookshop

Chair:
Mark
Wilberforce

The contribution of social workers to older people's well-being	Paul Willis, University of Bristol
A missed opportunity: the potential role of day care	Ailsa Cameron, University of Bristol
Food and drink-related needs and outcomes of older people who use community-based social care	Stacey Rand, University of Kent

---

12.00
Reading Room

Lunch

DAY 2

12.45 Reading Room	## Poster viewing

13.00 Common Room Chair: Catherine Needham	## Panel discussion The role of practice in developing research evidence Jon Glasby, University of Birmingham Ryan Cowley-Sharp, Lancashire and South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust Elaine James, Bradford Metropolitan District Council Karen Nixon, Midlands Partnership NHS Foundation Trust Liza Turton and Rachel Scourfield, Neath Port Talbot Council

13.45	## Parallel sessions

Mental health Old Bookshop Chair: Michael Clark	Older men's mental health and emotional wellbeing: use of community support groups	Alexandra Vickery, University of Bristol
	Reconsidering trauma: an ethnographic study of social suffering in mental health service	Shoshana Lauter, London School of Economics and Political Science
	Social care responses to self-neglect and hoarding behaviour among older people	Nicole Steils, King's College London
Older people Strand Chair: Jon Glasby	Promoting good practice in relation to alcohol use in care homes for older people	Sarah Wadd, University of Bedfordshire
	Community resources impacting quality of residential care for older people	Jacqueline Damant, London School of Economics and Political Science
	LGBTQ+ older adults and social care assessments: the LOASCA study	Jason Schaub, University of Birmingham
Learning disabilities Common Room Chair: TBC	'My home is your workplace'. How spaces for staff paperwork impact on the homeliness ideal in group homes for people with learning disabilities: findings from the Feeling at Home photovoice research project	Deborah Chinn, King's College London
	A hidden chasm: support for parents with learning disabilities when their children are no longer in their care	Mary Baginsky, King's College London
	The role of social network analysis in identifying unmet support needs for families supporting an adult with a learning disability within family homes	Jillian Powell, University of Bristol

15.00 Reading Room	Break and poster viewing

15.15	Parallel sessions

Co-production Strand Chair: Edmund Coleman- Fountain	Co-producing a user-defined model of avoidable harm	Sarah Carr, Independent
	Co-developing research on social care priorities for young adults with neuromuscular conditions	George Peat, University of York
	Co-producing qualitative dementia research with the 'Forget Me Nots'	Joe Webb, University of Bristol

Data and partnerships Common Room Chair: Helen Weatherly	Catalogue of social care measures	Derek King, London School of Economics and Political Science
	Engaging with local authorities as `sites' in a randomised controlled trial – bathing adaptations in the homes of older adults (BATH-OUT-2) successes and challenges	Phillip Whitehead, University of Newcastle
	Examining the economic case for adult social care interventions	Michela Tinelli and Magdalena Walbaum, London School of Economics and Political Science

Older people Old Bookshop Chair: Ann-Marie Towers	Better care moves: older people's 'transition' between different care settings	Wenjing Zhang, University of Kent
	Assistive technology and home modifications	Catherine Henderson, London School of Economics and Political Science
	Helping older people with mental health needs to engage with social care	Mark Wilberforce and David Niman, University of York

16.30	Close

NIHR | National Institute for Health and Care Research